Giuseppe Massaro joins LawaL in the Rome offices and forms a new team dedicated to Special Situations within the litigation and restructuring department.

Giuseppe has more than 15 years of experience in insolvency, restructuring and special situations in prestigious national and international law firms, particularly in the last 6 years in DLA Piper.

Giuseppe joins LawaL's litigation and restructuring department, working alongside partners Enrico Caruso and Isabella Secci, Guido Molinari and Roberto Sparano.

Two years after its founding, LawaL now has 20 partners in its four offices in Milan, Rome, Turin and Paris.

Piergiorgio Mancone, LawaL's managing partner, said, "Giuseppe is a person and a professional whom we esteem and have been following for a long time. I personally have known him for a long time. LawaL with Giuseppe strengthens its expertise in special situations, expanding its capabilities with cutting-edge expertise in insolvency and turnaround, as well as in litigation."

Giuseppe Massaro, new partner and head of the Special Situation team, said, "LawaL has proven to be a dynamic player in the market, with a clear and well-defined project. I am excited to collaborate with colleagues and contribute to the firm's strategy."
