

Lawal Legal & Tax Advisory boosts its national and international dimension

View all posts by Paolo Bossi :

The firm reaches over 50 professionals in the 4 offices in Milan, Rome, Turin and Paris.

Corrado Cardarello, Paolo Comuzzi, Roberto Gasparini, Sara Gastaldi, Andrea Marziale, Antonio Micalizzi, Guido Molinari and Roberto Sparano join Lawal Legal & Tax Advisory, after several years of professional practice at Quorum.

Also joining the firm as Partners are Mauro Raffaghelli, in Milan, and Gabriele Lipari, in Rome, thus completing the team of partners.

This integration allows Lawal to operate on behalf of its clients with a team of over 50 professionals divided in the different areas including Corporate M&A, Banking and Finance Regulation, Private Equity, Venture Capital, Litigation, Contracts, Construction Law, Communication and Advertising Law, Labor Law and Industrial Relations, Data Protection, Bankruptcy Law and Corporate Crisis, Competition Law as well as national and international tax advisory.

The teams will be concentrated in the Milan offices on Via Cino del Duca, Rome on Viale Bruno Buozzi, Turin on Corso Stati Uniti at Palazzo Ceriana Mayneri and Paris on Rue Vernet.

Reinforcements in practices

The integration further strengthens some strategic areas such as Tax, Labor Law and Data Protection, as well as providing for and adding additional expertise in the areas of compliance, banking and finance.

In particular, the Tax Law team is strengthened with 3 new Partners, Paolo Comuzzi, Roberto Gasparini and Antonio Micalizzi, making the structure further competitive throughout the country in the areas of International Tax, Corporate Tax, Transfer Pricing and Indirect Tax.

The integration also makes it possible to strengthen the Labor Law and Data Protection department, which to partner Davide Medda adds Corrado Cardarello, Sara Gastaldi and Andrea Marziale – as well as the two newly promoted Partners, Gabriele Lipari and Mauro Raffaghelli structuring a team capable of assisting clients throughout the country with experienced professionals with a consolidated reputation in the market.

Finally, the firm's Corporate M&A and Finance department will be strengthened by partners Guido Molinari and Roberto Sparano, who will expand the services offered to the Energy and Automotive sectors, compliance as well as financial services and insurance regulatory.

The addition of the 10 new partners brings LawaL the membership in the Globalaw international network, which includes more than 80 law firms in 80 jurisdictions and has more than 3,000 lawyers, ensuring a platform of leading independent firms in the most dynamic jurisdictions globally to serve LawaL's clients.

In addition to the existing and newly appointed partners, will join LawaL also associates Mauro Borlini, Antonio Cardarello, Laura Carrera, Marilena D'Angelo, Sonia Fiorenza, Andrea Gambazza, Daniele Grossi Gondi, Valentina Mariani, Cristina Marino Affaitati, Sara Mezzettieri, and Ada Poy, as well as Of Counsel Francesco Solinas and Fabio Weilbacher.

The statements

"The aggregation with Lawal," comments Antonio Micalizzi, "will allow important synergies between professionals and opens up further developments to further enhance the Firm's services.

"Belonging to the Globalaw international network, top ranked legal network in Chambers & Partners 2024 legal directory" continues Roberto Sparano, "allows the firm to count on a network of consolidated relationships with leading law firms in all the most dynamic jurisdictions in the world and ensures a relevant development pool for the structure's operations." –

Piergiorgio Mancone, Managing Partner at LawaL, says: "I am particularly excited to welcome our new colleagues. With the entry of the new partners, LawaL enhances its size, consolidates its presence in different sectors and creates a strong and credible presidium at the Rome office, reaching a fundamental piece to the Firm's development strategy. We will work fervently all together on a new governance that is better suited to the size we have achieved and essential to strengthen us further. We know that to compete at the levels we have set, we still need to strengthen ourselves, and with the help of the new partners, we are ready to do so."

LAWAL is a professional partnership of lawyers operating as a benefit company with offices in Milan, Rome, Turin, and Paris. Established in 2022 as a multi-practice law firm, LAWAL provides legal services in the areas of Banking and Financial Regulation; Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A); Private Equity; Venture Capital; Tax Law; Media Law; Employment Law, Litigation; Construction Law and Bankruptcy and Restructuring Law.

